Aboriginal business leader gives the gift of opportunity

Vancouver B.C., March 15, 2007 - Well known master Aboriginal business leader, Dave Tuccaro, is once again leading by example. He has kicked off the sponsorship fund raising drive of the Shudokan Karate and Education Canada Society through a donation of $10,000 towards the society's ongoing efforts to help Aboriginal and inner city kids.

Shudokan is a non-profit society that has helped hundreds of youth lead healthier lives using sports/martial arts as a springboard to achieve education and other goals.

Shudokan will be featured on the inspiring new national television program of Brenco Media, Tears and Triumphs, a thirteen part series that shares the stories of Aboriginal athletes (for more information click on ). The program will be airing nationally on APTN on the following times: March 15th at 2 PM, March 16th at 7 PM, and March 17th at 7PM. Shudokan was also recently profiled on First Talk with Tamara Bull, a national television talk show that airs daily on OMNI & APTN.

The Society is launching a major fund raising campaign. Sponsors and donors can download a full sponsorship package by clicking on: <http://www.shudokan.ca/sponsors.shtml>
